i Am A Champion :Kaizen Champions Creed (iAMA.C. :K.C.C.)

I am a Champion, Building a Champion within, Ready to Champion build.

I am a Champion in a Champion Builders Training Program;
I do everything possible to win, win, win,
Anything I do I am building a Champ, Building a Champion within.

Winning starts with beginning; Once I start something, It's half done,
With clear communication, I create a plan to identify my areas of need,
I set realistic goals to achieve; I will have a clear vision to stay on track,
Accessing my supports and exercising patience,
I focus on progress, not perfection.

Training in discipline, repetition and intensity; Being firm with myself,
Building great habits, Of confidence and courage, To accomplish my will;
Placing the world at my feet, I practice no defeat.

I may fall, I may stumble, I might bend to absorb pressure,
When I get likx, I will not break;
Like the Phoenix, I will rise; I aim for the top of the pack, I will not stop,
All I do is win, win, win, I don't do anything to hold myself back;
I build from within, and that's a fact,
I am Champion building.

I Champion Build with great attitude and gratitude; I am a Champion of Champions,
I am a winner, With a Champions mindset,
Everything I do, I do to win;
Win, win, win is what I do,
Champions win.

Being a Champion; With a Champions attitude,
With integrity, I Champion the cause, The Champions way.

I am a Champion, Champion Building;
Always in Improvement, Having a Champions Will,
Knowing that Attitude is Everything;
